

90 Degree sections of the 4ft circle were tested for IES files

Symbol files and IES files can be dowloaded together and placed in the same folder to allow for access within the AGI lighting program. The fixtures can also be imported from the provided AGI file.

Four IES files can be combined in a lighting program to calculate the light output of the full circle